6. [redacted] I talked to Mrs. Olive Hurley, Secretary to Senator J. Caleb Boggs (R., Del.), and told her that Agency personnel representatives will be contacting [redacted] [redacted] at her present address in Massachusetts. Mrs. Hurley [redacted] thanked me for the call back and said that the Senator will notify the applicant that the Agency will be making direct contact with her. Mrs. Hurley further requested that the Senator's office be kept advised.

7. [redacted] Met with Mrs. Oneta Stockstill, Executive Secretary, House Armed Services Committee, who told me that the Democratic caucus is scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday for nomination of Committee Chairmen. Ratification will follow in the House of Representatives. All Committee matters requiring signature of the Chairman, and organization of the Committee are being held in abeyance pending formal ratification of Mr. Hebert as Chairman of the Armed Services Committee.

6. [redacted] Received a call from Mr. J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, who told me the Committee would like to interview the new "Soviet song bird"

[redacted] at such time as the Agency can make him available.

25X1A

Mr. Sourwine noted that he did not want to use the name of the individual over the telephone.

[redacted] who identified the case as [redacted] I told Mr. Sourwine we would 25X1A note his request for such time as the individual is available for 25X1C surfacing.

[redacted]
Braswell said there had been no decision about handling Agency matters by our Subcommittee, but he rather assumed that our Armed Services Subcommittee would meet separately from our Senate Appropriations Subcommittee.

8. [REDACTED] Met with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, who said that Senator Ellender had not yet formally assumed the chairmanship of the Agency Appropriations Subcommittee, although it was fairly certain that he would. Woodruff recommended that we await formal announcement on this point, which probably would not be before the end of next week, before the Director meets with Ellender to discuss Agency matters.

Woodruff said that in view of somewhat strained personal relations between Ellender and Stennis, it was most unlikely that the two Subcommittees would meet jointly. 25X1A
